Looking for a charming and peaceful retreat in central Portugal? Look no further than this sweet cottage in Maças de Dona Maria, waiting for you to renovate and make it your own!

While the current layout includes 4 bedrooms, they are quite small and would likely be reconfigured during renovation. The same goes for the old bathroom and traditional kitchen with fireplace - these areas are ripe for updating and customization to fit your specific needs and style.

With a plot size of around 1600 square meters, there is plenty of room to create your dream outdoor space and take advantage of the stunning natural surroundings. And while the kitchen fireplace is currently the only source of heating in the cottage, this presents an opportunity to add modern heating options that suit your preferences.

One of the biggest draws of this property is its idyllic location in Macas de Dona Maria, a peaceful area within the Alvaiazere region of central Portugal. Whether you're looking for a quiet place to retire or a peaceful weekend getaway, this location has something to offer. Plus, with both Lisbon and Porto airports within reasonable driving distance, you'll have easy access to international travel options whenever you need them.

Beyond the practical benefits, living in this location offers a host of other benefits as well. You'll have the opportunity to experience the laid-back and welcoming lifestyle of Portugal, with its delicious cuisine, rich cultural history, and vibrant community of locals and expats alike.
