

Unique Agro-Tourism Farm with Historic Watermill & Restoration Potential

Reference Id	Area Build	Land Size	Price	Bedrooms	Bathrooms
S-1394	500 M²	9500 M²	€300,000	5	3

Immerse yourself in the beauty of nature and history with this exceptional 8,236m² off-grid farm, nestled in a lush, fertile valley in Vila Facaia, Pedrógão Grande. This extraordinary property offers the perfect canvas for agro-tourism, sustainable living, or a tranquil rural retreat. With its unique blend of historic charm and modern potential, this is an investment opportunity like no other.

Property Highlights:

1. Main House:

A comfortable two-bedroom home with a kitchen, living room, bathroom, and storage spaces. Ready to move in or customize to your vision.

2. Second House:

A cozy single-story dwelling featuring an open-plan kitchen and living area, one bedroom, and a bathroom—perfect for hosting guests or creating a serene escape.

3. Third House:

A two-story building full of character, waiting to be restored. Imagine transforming it into additional guest accommodations or an inspiring activity space.

4. Fourth House:

A charming old stone house currently used as a sheep pen, offering great potential for conversion into a unique living space.

5. Fifth House:

A piece of history with a ruined two-story building and an ancient chapel. These unregistered structures hold significant heritage value, making their restoration a rewarding endeavor.

Unique Features That Set This Property Apart:

Historic Watermill:

A functional corn and cereal mill powered by a private stream—an enchanting feature ready for restoration into a centerpiece attraction or eco-friendly asset.

Fertile Agricultural Land:

Cultivate your dreams with land teeming with fruit trees like cherry, peach, and olive. The property's efficient irrigation system, fed by a traditional levada, ensures year-round productivity.

Stream & Levada System:

A natural water channel flows gracefully through the property, enhancing both its utility and aesthetic appeal.

Historic Charm:

The remains of a centuries-old chapel and storage buildings evoke a sense of timelessness, waiting to be revitalized into something extraordinary.

Location Benefits:

- Convenient Access: Only 30 minutes from Coimbra and 1 hour 40 minutes from Lisbon or Porto.
 - Natural Beauty: Close to some of Portugal's most stunning river beaches, including Rocas, Poço Corga, and Fragas de São Simão.
-

Who Is This Property For?

This farm is perfect for visionaries seeking:

- A thriving agro-tourism retreat that blends sustainability with luxury.
- A peaceful off-grid lifestyle amidst Portugal's breathtaking countryside.
- A creative restoration project with the opportunity to preserve and celebrate local history.

With its idyllic location, historic elements, and versatile potential, this property invites you to dream big and make your mark.

? Don't Miss This Opportunity!

Contact us today to schedule a visit and unlock the boundless possibilities of this rare gem.