One Bedroom Cottage for Rent in Central Portugal

A sweet cottage with a courtyard, garden and sun terrace has become available to rent. There is off-road parking, and the garden is large enough to relax with friends.

The cottage is just a short distance from the market town of Alvaiazere in Central Portugal.

The sun terrace is accessible from the landing area, as are the bathroom and the bedroom.

There is an open feeling to the kitchen and lounge, which is well appointed with dressed stone.

A log burner provides all the heat you might need during winter.

A large storage area workshop provides you with a place to store your extra things and also is a log store.
